

A right royal occasion

Children at Whimple celebrated the Queen's Diamond Jubilee with a street party.

The children made cakes, sandwiches, biscuits and party hats with a red, white and blue theme.

Lots of parents helped us to set up the tables and with organising the bunting and then joined the children for their party tea.

Our eldest and youngest children cut our celebration cake and everyone had a piece.

We finished the afternoon by dancing round the Maypole.

